Fire District Ordinance No. 2024-01.

All incident responses the Rodeo-Hercules Fire District is legally permitted to charge for will be subject to the following fees. Incident response fees are per hour or part thereof by unit. There is a minimum one-hour charge for all responses with the exception of nuisance alarms which are billed at a minimum of thirty (30) minutes or actual time rounded to the nearest hour, whichever is more (from time of response). After the first hour, the charges will be in thirty (30) minute increments. Personnel beyond the normal company complement are charged at hourly rates. Incident response fees include, but are not limited to: mitigation of hazardous materials, standby or fire watch, false alarms due to “failure to notify” when working on or testing systems, trouble alarms due to “failure to notify” when working on or testing systems, or three (3) or more false alarms within a 12-month period.

*Rates will be adjusted based on annual Bay Area CPI increases, OES/FEMA vehicle rates and agreements, consultant contracts and/or MOU agreements
